Before we conclude, It has come to the attention of the Constituency Executives a rumour being peddled by some characters that some big wigs within the party, particularly at the regional and national levels, desires and are forcefully imposing Hon. Dr. Bernard Okoe Boye to stand unopposed in the impending NPP Parliamentary Candidate primaries. We want to say categorically that this tittle-tattle is most unfortunate, concocted and must be treated with disdain. Infact these characters were unconstrained enough to even go to the extent of implicating the President's wife, Her Excellency, Mrs Rebecca Akufo-Addo, the Chief of Staff Hon. Akosua Frema Osei-Opare among other dedicated personalities of our beloved party. They have, by this injurious action, demonstrated that they don't have the interest of the party at heart otherwise they would first of all go through the right channel to make their grievances known if any exists at all. We would once again like to categorically state that the claims by these disgruntled few, apart from being false, is in no doubt motivated by personal vendetta against the hard working MP Hon. Dr. Okoe Boye.

In conclusion, The Executives of the New Patriotic Party in Ledzokuku encourage love, tolerance and unity in the face of hate and the current Pandemic. Let's all come together to build a better Ghana and to fight this COVID-19 Pandemic. Long live Ghana, Long live Ledzokuku. Ayekooo !!!, Ayekoo!! Mr. President. Ayekoo!! ,Ayekoo !! Hon.Dr. Bernard Okoe Boye
