NEWS RELEASE

RE-BOUNDARY DISPUTE BETWEEN BONFA AND ADUMAKASE KESE IN THE AFIGYA KWABRE SOUTH DISTRICT OF THE ASHANTI REGION

1. It has come to the attention of the Ashanti Regional Police Command that some youth in Adumakaase Kese are planning to wage war amidst threats of harm and death against the people of Bonfa.
2. The Police Command wishes to draw the attention of all that threats of harm and death are criminal acts and that it is not going to contenance any acts of lawlessness within these Communities. Any person or group of persons who will be arrested will be severely dealt with according to the law. Again members of the Community are reminded that their action is causing fear and panic which is also criminal.
3. The Command is by this release, extending a strong warning to those behind the planned attacks to rethink and rescind their decision, because any person arrested will not be spared, since the Police will not sit unconcerned for any miscreant to create insecurity in the area.
4. The Command has also met with Chiefs of the two Communities who have assured the Police to engage their community members to bring about peace in the two Communities.
5. The media is once again urged to be circumspect in the way they report on the issue in order not to create more tension and anxiety among the people.
