

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DISTURBANCES ARISING OUT OF UNIVERSITY HALL WEEK CELEBRATIONS

Following the disturbances arising out of the University Hall Week Celebrations on Thursday 18th August, 2022, the Executive Committee of the University, at an Emergency Meeting held on 19th August, 2022, constituted a Fact-Finding Committee to establish the causes of the disturbances.

The Executive Committee also decided that with IMMEDIATE EFFECT:

- i. Hall Week and SRC Week celebrations are SUSPENDED INDEFINITELY;
- ii. Massing up of students leading up to 'morale' activities and procession is SUSPENDED INDEFINITELY;
- iii. Random security checks of persons and vehicles entering and exiting the University campus are to be carried out.

The Transport Department of the University has been directed to take custody of all the vehicles that were vandalised during the disturbances and make appropriate recommendations for repairs.

Management of the University wishes to express its profound gratitude to the Security Agencies, particularly, the Ashanti Regional Police Command, for their swift intervention in restoring peace and order on Campus. We would also like to assure the University Community and the general public of the commitment of Management to ensure uninterrupted academic activities in the University.

A K BOATENG
REGISTRAR

cc: Vice-Chancellor
Pro Vice-Chancellor
Provosts
Director of Students Affairs
Deputy Registrar (University Relations)
Transport Engineer
Head of Security
GRASAG President
SRC President