FAKE COURSES OFFERED ON GHANAADMISSIONS.COM BY UPSA

Legon, Accra-Wednesday, January 17, 2024. The attention of the Management of the University of Professional Studies Accra, UPSA, has been drawn to a fake website – ghanaadmissions.com on UPSA courses, requirements, and admission for prospective students being offered at the University.

The general public is hereby informed that the University of Professional Studies Accra has only one website – www.upsa.edu.gh on which details of programmes offered, and admission requirements by the university are listed.

The university may be reached on telephone numbers 0303937542 and 0303958571 Admissions Front Desk, and on www.upsa.edu.gh, admissions@upsamail.edu.gh for information about the University and programmes.

We entreat prospective students and the public to disregard the information on other websites and only refer to www.upsa.edu.gh for official information on, from and about the University's programme offerings and other admission-related information
