PRESS RELEASE - TO ALL MEDIA HOUSES

Sunday 4th August 2024

CPP REJECTS HIS EXCELLENCY NANA ADDO DANKWA AKUFO- ADDO'S UNFOUNDED FOUNDERS' CLAIM

Fellow Countrymen and women, children and admirers of the Great Osagyefo, the great and only founder of our great country.

Today is another solemn day in the history of our dear nation, a day where we are once again reminded of the attempts by the New Patriotic Party Government to whitewash the history of this country for its own parochial interests.

It is not surprising that on the eve of this day, the leader of this nation, His Excellency Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo, whom the CPP accords all the respect due the Presidency, should come out with such an unfounded claim.

Coming so soon after the statement on an NPP campaign platform, where our great Founder was referred to as 'mu Kwame Nkrumah', it is evident that the President and his party have concluded that they want nothing to do with the Great Osagyefo and his vision of true economic, social, and political freedom and prosperity for Ghana, Africa, and the marginalised worldwide.

To reject The Osagyefo as the Founder of Ghana on the weak basis that "the struggle for our nation's freedom was a collective effort spanning several generations" is indeed an unfortunate gaffe, and it would have been thought His Excellency would have been more selective with his words, in these last days of the NPP administration, especially after mistakenly referring to His Excellency the former President John Dramani Mahama as his vice only a couple of days ago. The NPP is indeed a party of inaccuracies and massaging of facts on all fronts.

The whole world knows who the Osagyefo is, and that he Founded this country and named it Ghana, after the old Ghana Empire, on the eve of our independence of 6th March 1957. This was after countless attempts were made by the antecedents of the NPP, made up of Dr. J.B. Danquah and other elements of the UP tradition, to stop Ghana from gaining independence.

Thus, no amount of rejection by His Excellency Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo can change that.

What will be resoundly rejected due to its bad and hardship propagating policies and corruption, is the NPP Government at the Polls, come 7th December 2024.

Ghanaians will continue to defend The Osagyefo and his progressive vision, and no amount of rejection by any individual, party, or foreign neo-colonialist element can stop it.

Forward Ever!

Backward Never!

Yɛn Kwame Nkrumah!

Ghanafuo Kwame Nkrumah!
